A preschool, also known as nursery school, pre-primary school, playschool or kindergarten, is an educational establishment or learning space offering early childhood education to children before they begin compulsory education at primary school. It may be publicly or privately operated, and may be subsidized from public funds. Graduation programs are a necessary guide for students, parents, as well as the faculty of the school. Aside from this, there are still a lot more uses of the program during a graduation. They are also memorable keepsakes for this important milestone in one's life. The HighScope early childhood education approach, used in preschool, kindergarten, childcare, or elementary school settings, was developed in Ypsilanti, Michigan in 1970. It is now common there and in some other countries. The philosophy behind HighScope is based on child development theory and research, originally drawing on the work of Jean Piaget and John Dewey. This is a beautiful graduation program cover brochure. It begins with the picture of certificates at the top and then goes down to detail about the commencement exercises- from the use of colors to fonts, everything is just elegant.
